

Yew Tree Cottage South Street, Great Wishford, Salisbury, Wiltshire, SP2 0NN Guide Price £700,000 Freehold

A wonderful character cottage together with garden, double garage and parking, quietly situated in a very popular village.

Description

A charming, five bedroom detached Grade II Listed, 16th century thatched cottage, full of character, situated in the middle of this popular Wylde Valley village with easy access to Salisbury and the A303. This is possibly the oldest cottage in Great Wishford (well known for its annual Oak Apple Day celebrations). At one time the property was a sweet shop and has now been under the same ownership since 1983. It has a double garage with driveway and ample parking and gardens to rear and side. There are good views to the rear over farmland, owned by the Wilton Estate. There is a wealth of original features, including exposed timbers and a working fireplace within the inglenook in the sitting room and a there is an old bread oven in the dining room (not in use). The property was extended in the 1990s to provide a modern kitchen space with french doors to the garden with a double bedroom above, taking in the views. The accommodation consists of entrance porch, hall, cloakroom, kitchen/dining room, walk through utility area, family room/dining room, sitting room, study, five bedrooms and a bathroom. Ample sized gardens can be found to the rear and side of the property and boast countryside views. There is easy access to the medieval Cathedral city of Salisbury and local convenience shopping in nearby Wilton. Oil fired central heating, The roof was completely re-thatched in water reed (with a combed wheat ridge) completed in early 2013. The property is offered with vacant possession from 1st June and no onward chain.
