

1, Rectory Cottages South Street, Great Wishford, Salisbury, Wiltshire,
SP2 0NN

Guide Price £260,000 Freehold

A delightful character cottage in a sought-after village with terrific potential for improvement.

Directions

Description

A semi-detached cottage of character together with good-sized side and rear gardens with a southerly aspect, useful outside utility space, oil central heating and some double glazing. Although the property is in need of improvement, there is terrific potential to extend and alter (subject to planning permissions) to create a lovely family home. Great Wishford is ideally situated within easy access of Salisbury and the nearby town of Wilton which has an excellent range of amenities. The village itself has a popular public house and a primary school. The property is offered to the market with no onward chain.
